

There is no moment like the present where it is more urgent to fight for sexual and reproductive health and rights. If you are passionate about IPPF's governance and mission, have the time to commit, and are interested in becoming a Trustee on IPPF's diverse, skills-based Board, or a member of our new Nominations and Governance Committee (NGC), we would welcome your interest and application.

In December 2019, IPPF's Governing Council approved recommendations from the General Assembly to carry out a fundamental reform of the Federation's governance structure. Our new Trustees will reflect the diversity of our constituency, particularly in terms of gender identity and sexual orientation, age, geography and background and bring a passion for sexual and reproductive health and rights. Members will come from across the globe, bringing the experience of countries of various sizes and at different stages of development, as well as the perspectives of youth, grassroots actors, under-served communities, the worlds of health, human rights and international development, the political sphere and regional and global institutions.

Perrett Laver has been tasked with embarking on a search for 15 Trustees to serve on the Board of Trustees. Nine of these trustees will be recruited from among the IPPF membership, while a further six trustees will be recruited externally. The Board will be recruited to reflect the diversity of the Federation and the people it serves. It will be composed of at least 20% people under 25 years old at the time of election and at least 50% women, among other diversity criteria. We encourage applications from across the globe.

We are also seeking 7 members of the new Nominations and Governance Committee, each of whom will bring proven experience and expertise, and a strong track record of integrity and accountability. The NGC will also include representatives from among the IPPF membership.

As unremunerated and voluntary roles they will require time, commitment and effort throughout the year. Trustees are expected to dedicate a minimum of 10-12 days a year including travel to fulfil their Board responsibilities, as well as international travel to visit partners where possible. The Chair is expected to dedicate 20-25 days a year. Members of the NGC are expected to dedicate a minimum of 5-8 days a year.
